

First Lutheran Church, as a member of The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America...

- Confesses the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- Confesses Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and the Gospel as the power of God for the salvation of all who believe
- Confesses that Jesus Christ is the Word of God incarnate, through whom everything was made and through whose life, death, and resurrection God fashions a new creation.
- Receives the proclamation of God's message to us as both Law and Gospel, the Word of God. This Word reveals judgment and mercy through word and deed, beginning with the Word in creation, continuing in the history of Israel, and centering in all its fullness in the person and work of Jesus Christ.
- Receives the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the written Word of God. They record and announce God's revelation centering in Jesus Christ. Through them God's Spirit speaks to us to create and sustain Christian faith and fellowship for service in the world.
- Accepts the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the inspired Word of God and the authoritative source and norm of its proclamation, faith, and life.
- Accepts the Apostle's, Nicene, and Athanasian Creeds as true declarations of the faith of this church. (for the text of these historic creeds, click the link to www.elca.org/What-We-Believe/Statements of Belief)
- Accepts the Unaltered Augsburg Confession as a true witness to the Gospel, acknowledging as one with it In faith and doctrine all churches that likewise accept the teachings of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession.
- Accepts the other confessional writings in the Book of Concord, namely, the Apology of the Augsburg Confession, the Smalcald Articles and the Treatise, the Small Catechism, the Large Catechism, and the Formula of Concord, as further valid interpretations of the faith of the Church.
- Confesses the Gospel, recorded in the Holy Scriptures and confessed in the ecumenical creeds and Lutheran confessional writings, as the power of God to create and sustain the Church for God's mission in the world.

(This Confession of Faith is published in the Constitution of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.)
